1984 MNEMOSYNE
A NEW BEGINNING
vol. 64

In Dedication

Two lovely Huntington College women have the best new beginning possible. Both women have a new beginning with Christ in heaven. They're no longer with us, but their new life in heaven is much better than anything we could offer them.

Debbie Osgood (pg. 3) left her life on earth December 11, 1983 after a long battle with cystic fibrosis. A very short time later, on January 23, 1984, Deb's good friend, Wendy Huff joined her after Wendy was involved in a car accident. Both Deb and Wendy were beautiful inside and out and truly lived Christ-like lives.

Deb, through her disease, was drawn very close to God and put many of us to shame. Even though she was constantly coughing and often in pain, she rarely complained. She accepted her situation and did her best to glorify God through it. Because of this attitude she was able to touch the lives of many. She always wanted to help others and really be a friend. Few people who met her left unchanged in some way. She simply let God's love shine through her challenging the rest of us.

Wendy's life was one which really exemplified the joy which Christ gives. She knew what it was like to have life more abundantly because of Christ. As a result she was a very caring person and had a real burden for others. She always had time to listen no matter how busy she was. She certainly wasn't a fake. On top of all this, she was crazy. She kept her floor moving by instigating capers. She knew how to have a great time without being destructive.

Both girls have been separated from us for a while, but those of us who know Christ as Savior will be with them someday. Their jobs for Christ are finished, ours are just beginning.

Wendy is seen here by her car which took her all the county ministering to young people through Campus life.

Sue Winger and Linda VanAntwerp help Wendy model the newest fashons.

Favorite Verses
Wendy:

"But the Lord said to me, 'Do not say, I am only a child. You must go to everyone I send you to and say whatever I command you. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you and will rescue you,' declares the Lord."

Jeremiah 1:7, 8

Deb:

"Jesus said unto her, 'I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?' "

John 11:25,26

Margo and Sally are hamming it up with Deb.

Wendy is seen here with her famous smile.

Above: Deb's cousin Sally Fox was her roommate and friend.

Table Of Contents

5 Activities
The activities section has tried to capture student life and all the special things that happen among the student body. Plays, Homecoming, Late Night Skates, and Graduation are only a few of the many features.

Juniors 103
Even though the junior class is small, they manage to have their influence felt. Their section tries to capture the witty ways of the carefree junior.

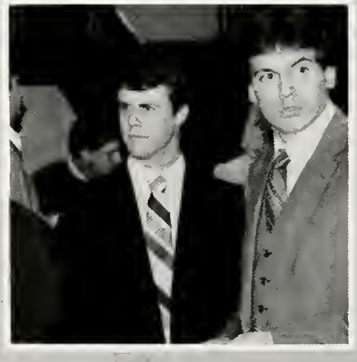
39 Athletics
Athletics is a big part of HC and we've tried to catch some of the highlights as well as reviews of the seasons. Our seniors are given a special tribute!

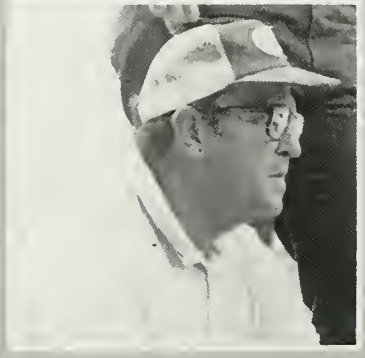
Sophomores 109
No longer on the bottom of the ladder, the sophomore class has advanced another year in its HC career. Most of them have even managed to avoid the sophomore blues.

65 Organizations
Huntington College's organizations are often overlooked, but this year we've tried to include many pictures as well as some of the activities each group has done. Senate, Musical groups, and much more are included!

Freshmen 117
Our Freshman class is the biggest we've seen in a few years at HC. They're also the wildest and loudest. Maybe next year they'll calm down. Miracles do happen.

87 Seniors
Our seniors this year are truly exceptional. This section honors them and gives them an opportunity to leave the rest of us with a message by their pictures.





Administration 127 and Faculty
The Administration and faculty worked hard this year with the increased enrollment. Their dedication for improvement is appreciated by all.

ACTIVITIES ACTIVITIES

When the Sycamore Shop brought their new fall line to Hardy Hall, there were some tough decisions to be made for these Hiltonites.

Has Mark (Stretch) Underwood been taking notes in the arboretum again?

Color My World

Our lives have been "colored" in many ways while attending Huntington College.

By reading the black and white print of the textbooks, taking notes from the blackboard, and even by watching black and white films, we have added many colors to our lives. We have learned to strive for what lies at the end of the rainbow.

While working for that seemingly impossible diploma, many things touched our lives. Colorful people, bright ideas, and most importantly, a shining Christ, all joined to make this year one to remember.

Spellbinding, is one word used to describe the effect of the death of two spiritually beautiful people. Although their deaths may have darkened our world for a short time, the light of hope shines through. The passing of these two, awakened many sleeping Christians.

By opening our hearts, God has allowed a part of his magnificent rainbow to enter our lives.

Kamie Mellon patiently (?) anticipates her long-awaited date.

Watch out Younter! Wendy isn't on vacation.

Baker lounge proves to be a perfect place to play football for Todd Larson and Pat Booher.

Shirley Allen models the latest in shower curtains after her clothes disappeared from the bathroom.

Hey Greg and Skip, are the hooks in the tent?

Queen Cindy Lee appoints Phil Pranger as the "Ugly Man." Phil was the winner of the contest in which Cam Parr, Dave Burkholder, Dan Wust, and Jim Asher also participated.

Dianna Taylor, junior representative, was escorted by Jay Sherrill.

H.C. Homecoming 1983

A "New Beginning" could be seen in the 1983 Homecoming Events. "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" was the theme for one of Huntington College's main events. Due to a new Senate ruling, only seniors were contendable for receiving the position of Homecoming Queen.

Friday evening began the festivities as 1982 Queen, Petie Jordan passed the crown on to her successor. In the dream land of Merrilat, the audience and the court waited. To sustain the suspense, M.C.'s President and Mrs. Habecker and Wendy Smith provided entertainment. Queen Cindy Lee Smith, and candidates Shirley Allen, Molly Walters, and Jodie Yoder were representing their class of 1984. The underclassmen of the court consisted of Dianna Taylor, junior; Kelly Gessinger, sophomore; and Karen Krist, freshman.

Wendy Smith entertains with a song.

Queen Cindy Smith was escorted by senior Roger Vezeau.

Candidate Shirley Allen was escorted by senior Scott Johnson.

Queen Candidate, Molly Walter, was escorted by senior Chris Yentes.

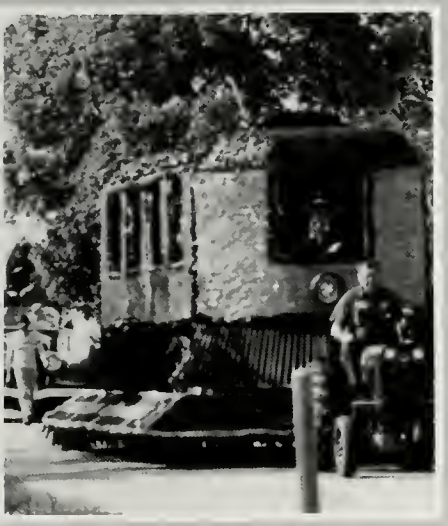
Jodi Yoder, Queen Candidate, was escorted by Roger Cooley.

Lori Justice, is that you clowning around? Or are you just sitting down on the job?

President Habecker and his wife, Mary Lou enjoy a ride in one of the antique cars in the parade.

The sophomore class out do themselves with this prize winning float. This is the second year for their first rating.

Senior candidates show their radiance as they wave to the crowd.



Here comes the train!

The freshmen display God's Promise in their design of their float.

Reggie Hall is carting his women off again!

Stacey Honeywell and Marlene Stone lead this year's parade.

Wright Hall Cart Brigades show their talent with their veterans and new recruits.

The seniors paint themselves a colorful scene throughout the year.

Tammy Raymond drives for Mark Parker, 1983 Grand Marshall.

Parade '83

The Homecoming Parade had a beautiful day to follow the previous events of the coronation. The rewards for staying up all night to finish minute details on the floats, for all the hard work in the organization, for getting up early to get the cars ready, and for all those other "little" things could be seen Saturday morning. The community showed their support and appreciation as they stepped outside to participate in the college event. As children, young and old and in-between, stood along the street, it seemed worthwhile to go through all the preparation of the day's event.

Kerry Arnold and Jim Ovenshire help down and out Tim Chown to a glass of water.

An impatient Randy Neuman gestures to Darlene Cox.

Kerry Arnold winces with pain while on his bicycle.

Shari Sewell, Kim Ramsey, Rick Dennie, and Dave Marlow have a few sips while they're discussing the stock market's fall.

Psychiatrist Linda Smith interviews Charlie Barber.

Sue Winger seems intent on getting young Nathan Stump married off.

The American Clock

The American Clock is a serious play that deals with the devastating effect of the Great Depression on the Baum family and society in general. This 1930's drama shows how they deal with this crisis and their approach to some of its radical solutions. Dr. Zurcher's talented cast gave the Davis Hall crowds an excellent look at life in the depression.

Denise Naab and Rhonda Hamilton take a break to watch the guys skate!

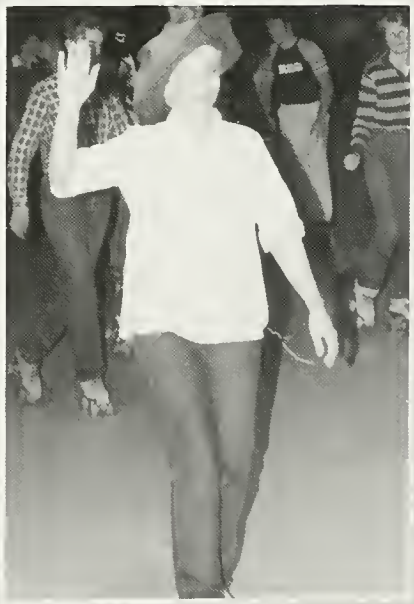
Lance Tillman seems to be looking for trouble.

Bob (Tiny) Stedman is giving us his HULK impression as he skates by.

Sue Ovenshire can't see enough of the students during the week, so she joins the weekend fun.



Mary Moore shows us her version of the Hokey Pokey.

Disguised Matt Boyer, Bruce Cook, and Ron Kuckuck keep the evening moving.

Even a stud like Jon Kramer needs a break from skating.

Skate Late

Hey, do you have any wild-striped socks? Here's a pair of punk sunglasses! Look at that get-up! These are a few exclamations that ring throughout the dorms as students prepare for the night's event . . . Late Nite Skate!

Senate attempted to sponsor monthly activities to reduce the campus' biggest problem; nothing to do. From the hours of 11 p.m. to 2 a.m., individuals release tensions, let their hair down, and just have fun! Of course the biggest chore that night will be finding something to wear. It sould be a disgrace to show up with your regular duds . . . or on the floor without your skates on.

Larry Jackson demonstrates to Fave Connor how to swallow an orange whole.

The blind leading the blind, seems appropriate for Dave James and Mr. Proffit.

Sue Ovenshire and Sarah Adams take a moment from peddling their herbs.

Dr. Michelson uses members of the audience to help keep interest high.

Dr. Michelson's one-lined riddles helped give a true night of merryment.

Frank Hladik is hard at work making sure everything is in its place.

Boar's Head Festival

Once a year students, faculty, and friends are transported mentally through time to the middle ages, and find themselves surrounded by many strange people.

At this occasion servants carry in the boar's head from which the the feast gets its title. As the meal began, Jester Larry Jackson with help from Ellen Baker, Steve Gray, and Dave James entertained the assembly with juggling and general havoc. A ghostly sorceress roamed the dining hall peddling her herbs and casting spells on the jester who tormented her ceaselessly.

Colegium musicum gave a short concert after the meal, leaving the rest of the evening open for games.

To end the evening, Professor Jack Barlow gave the parting words as the proper host should have given to end such an evening in the middle ages.

Long before the evening could begin, however, preparation took place. Mrs. Rebecca Barlow, Mrs. Jean Michelson, and Mrs. Cassandra Hladik began months ahead of time to make the costumes. While they were doing this, their husbands, Professor Jack Barlow, Dr. Paul Michelson, and Mr. Frank Hladik, studied the details of the festival.

Is Tal dancing or playing fresbee?

Reggie finds a cool place to mellow out while studies pile up.

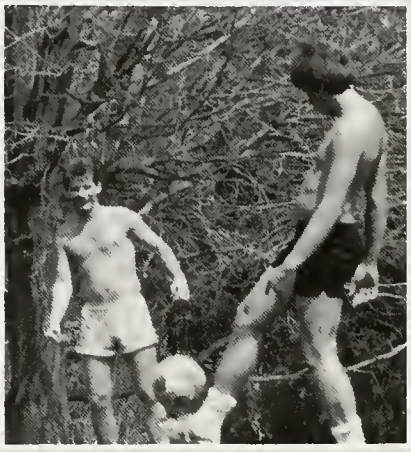
Duane Pea and Tom Datema are pretty intense during their fooseball game.

Sue Winger probably has a paper due as she scrapes the snow off the ice.

Molly Walter wakes up from her nap. Most likely a stack of papers is waiting to be graded.

Baker boys watch Hardy girls walk by as finals approach.

Larry and Jack forget their studies and play soccer on this beautiful day.



Carl Mongold gets his motorcycle ready for spring as his computer programs lay unfinished.

Procrastination

Most college students, except for Debbie Mefferd of course, find deadlines approaching and their work remaining obstinately unfinished. Nobody knows why this phenomenon sweeps accross our campus capturing many in its wake. Still, the fact remains that HC students are no exception to the rule. They can always find many things to do much more enjoyable than studying. So here is captured for our beloved professors, a look at what the students do to keep from getting their assignments finished, papers completed, and tests studied for.

Everyone has lots of enthusiasm at the start of the long walk around Huntington.

Twenty-five kilometers were covered by the footloose walkers this year.

Walk-A-Thon

Any one who has ever ridden in a college van realized the necessity of this year's walk-a-thon. Some of the money raised is going toward a mini-bus for the school. Excellent idea!

The superb weather for this Footloose event helped make the 25 km walk around Huntington quite enjoyable. Walkers greatly appreciated the shortened length (25 km instead of 25 mi).

Special recognition goes to Roger Vezeau and Steve Gray for their work in coordinating the event. It was very well planned and ran quite smoothly.

The Habeckers end with a jog.

Phil Stanzack takes off his shoes to rest his weary feet.

President Habecker encourages everyone before the long walk begins.

If Mike Newman and Chant Thompson can cross the finish line, anyone can. (Who knows if they walked the 25 km before the line?)

Roger Cooley makes sure he gets all the energy he needs for the walk back.

Christian Life Emphasis Week

John Cassis was the featured speaker for Christian Life Emphasis Week, Feburary 20-22. His morning talks concerned "The Beatitudes: Positive Attitudes for Living," from Matthew 5. Nightly sessions dealt with topics relevant to college students, such as dealing with stress, characteristics of high achievers, and self-image. John's many stories, his love, and his concern for people with varied interests made him a real favorite on campus. In those three short days he made an impact on many lives which will last for a long time.

— Story by Dave Burkholder

As John Cassis introduced himself to many students, his God-given abilities shine thru.

"Come on John! Trust Me!" Throughout the week volunteers had been used in his talks and one such volunteer, Jerry Davis got even at the last session.

Cassis takes time out to shoot some pool and enjoy leisure time with newly made friends.

Rex Hurraw, Jule McKanna, Debbie Wiedenhoft, and Shari Sewell gather around John Cassis after a session.

The vibrant speaker tells students that laughter is the best cure for stress.

Cam Parr expresses his thoughts with the guest speaker.

Air Band Videos Contest

Once again, Airband Contests have been held at H.C. This year, however, a little spice was added to the game ... VIDEO. What does this mean? Well, choreography could be added into the individual shows performed on stage. It was up to each crew how they wanted to present themselves and as is obvious, anything goes. There were contests each semester at H.C. In the fall contest, the group known as Camaflogue won. Winners of the spring contest were Amy Grant and her band. All contestants provided good entertainment and something for students to do on a Friday night. A job well done to all who participated.

Jule McKanna portrays Boy George of Culture Club.

Susan Winger sings "Fat Baby" and has fans at her feet.

McKanna and cast performing Camilia.

Portraying the "fat baby", Jim Lange flashes his wonderful body.

Left: Queen Pizz, servants Julie Whitsit, Vanessa Garlinger, Sue Gnagy, Dianna Taylor, and Brenda Fox portray life in Egypt.

Lower Left: Suellen Loher sings Keith Green's "So You Wanna Go Back to Egypt".

Lower Right: The crew from 'Fat Baby' shows the enthusiasm it takes to be number one.

CAMAFLOGUE led by Dianna Taylor performs an encore performance of "Love is a Battlefield".

Dolly talks to her late husband.

Mrs. Molloy wonders if ribbons down her back might help someone notice her.

Dolly convinces Ambrose that she can teach him how to dance.

Horace loses patience and tells everyone to get lost.

The townspeople stroll along.

Innocent Barnaby was quite surprised by quite a bit and scared of kissing.

Minnie just couldn't keep from telling all about Mrs. Molloy's upcoming marriage.

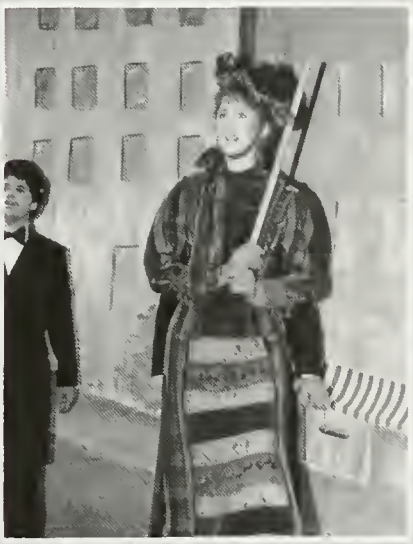
Horace calls Cornelius a bumbling idiot.

Hello Dolly

Mrs. Dolly Gallagher Levi, a widow and professional matchmaker, returns to New York after a long absence. Her purpose: to arrange a marriage between a Mr. Horace Vandergelder of Yonkers, and the perfect match. To Horace, the marriage is to be between him and Mrs. Irene Molloy, but Dolly has quite another idea. According to Dolly, the perfect match is no other than Dolly herself. The play is hilarious as Dolly convinces Horace of this, and as she meddles in the lives of the other characters.

Dolly tells Ermengarde to keep her chin up. Her love for Ambrose will work out.

Barnaby learns how to dance after some assistance from Dolly.



Linda VanAntwerp takes a stroll through town during one number.

Forester Night

Forester Night this year was an extremely pleasant evening for all who attended. Kent and Kyan Young were our MC's. They were helped entertain by the Four Neat Guys who did a terrific job as usual. Few will forget the antennaes on their heads as they sang.

The theme for this awards banquet was "Through Christ I Can!" Two individuals who seem to exemplify this theme very well are our Forester and Foresterette, Roger Vezeau and Mel Cripe. Professor of the Year went to Dr. Zurcher for his many years of service. Congratulations!

Dr. Zurcher receives professor of the year award from Roger Vezeau.

Kent and Kyan Young seemed surprised when their trivia questions didn't stump students and friends.

Senior Alpha Psi members are all recognized before outstanding dramatist award is given.

Junior class president, Grover Cleveland, smiles as the evening was a success.

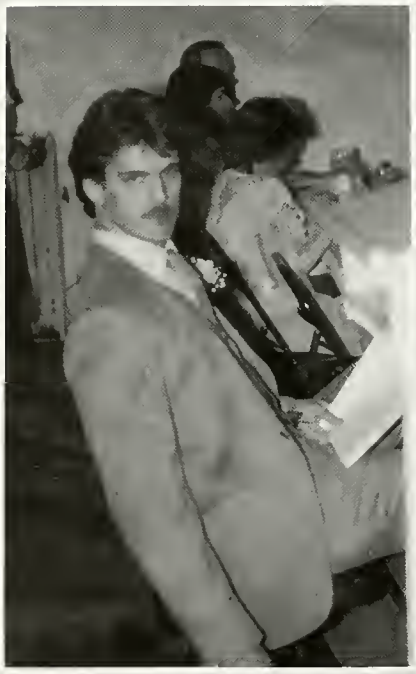
President and Mrs. Habecker joined the students for this annual event.



Gary Town shows us his GQ look.

Roger Vezeau enjoys the company of two lovely ladies.

Students enjoyed a wonderful meal prepared by Frank and his crew.

Rick Rumler smiles as his date goes well.

Frank oversees the cake cutting.

Yes it's true, Gayle and John had a date. No, they aren't getting married.

Junior/Senior Reception

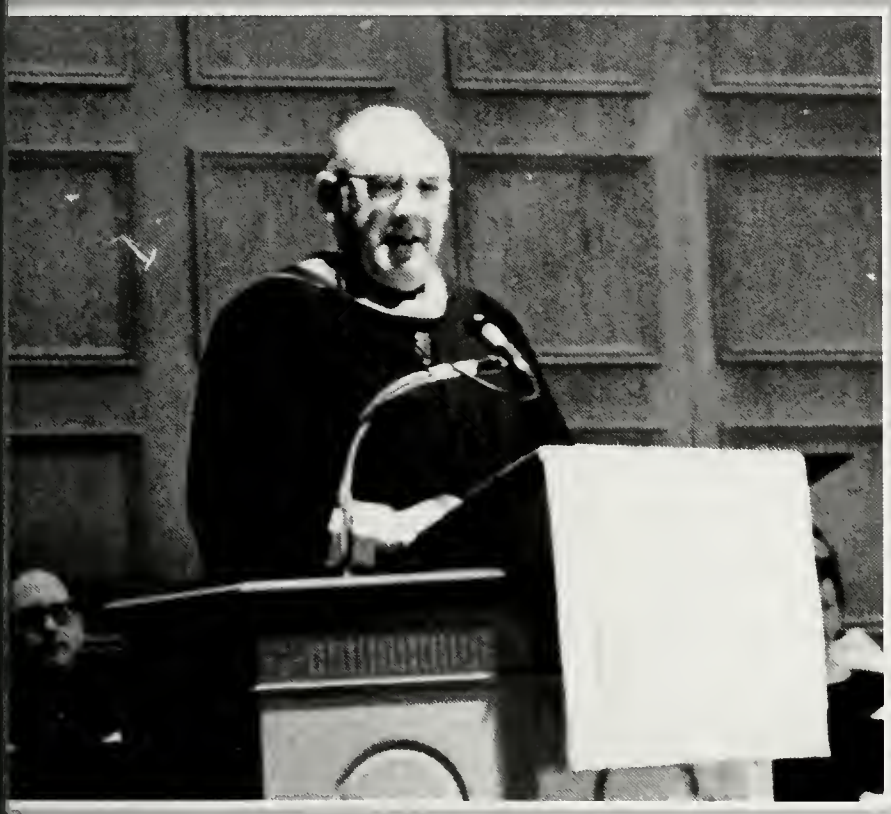
The Junior/Senior Reception this year was held at the Community Center in Warren. Frank Mitchell and his SAGA staff provided the wonderful food.

After the meal, music was provided by a group from Good Shepherd Church. All in all it was a fun night for the couples who attended. By the way, it's rumored that the guys could rent a date from Florida.

Graduating Class Of 1984

Graduates nervously prepare for the ceremony.

Karen Wagner and Sabra Newsome are all smiles now that the day is finally here.



Bishop Jerry Datema gave the sermon entitled "Living as Royalty in a World of Chaos."

President Habecker welcomes family and friends to Huntington College for the events of the day.

Graduate Hank Reutz looks sober reflecting on his undergrad days.

Randy Evans, Dave Burkholder, and Dave James leave College Park Church for the last time. It's a good thing they got all 256 chapels in.

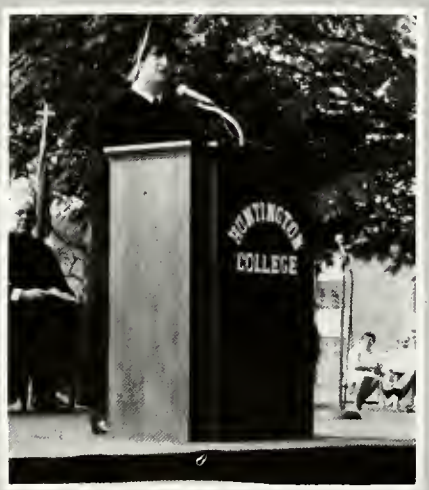
Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate was held at College Park Church Saturday morning prior to graduation. Graduates Susan Newsom and Shirley Allen helped provide music for the prelude and David Morton provided special music for the service.

The speaker was Bishop Jerry Datema. He talked of world problems such as stravation, drought, wars, etc., and then welcomed the graduates to the 'real world.' Students and friends enjoyed the worship service together.

Dr. Elisabeth Elliot gave the graduation address entitled "My Name on that List."

The Four Neat Guys finish their appearances with the national anthem.



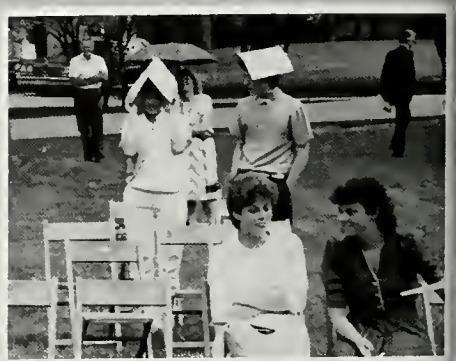
Kerry Arnold, senior class president, gave words of greeting and thanks to family, friends, and faculty.

Rain helped make graduation a very memorable event.

Commencement

After four years (in most cases) of hard work, the day finally arrived. Seniors were able to say good-bye to HC, its faculty and students, and join the 'real world. Commencement took place Saturday, May 19, on front campus. This was the first time it's been outside since Dr. Habecker has been the president.

Dr. Elisabeth Elliot, former missionary and well known author, gave the commencement address. She challenged the gradutes to be faithful Christians, but warned of some of the wickedness they may have to go through because of their faith. She based this on Hebrew 11:35-40.



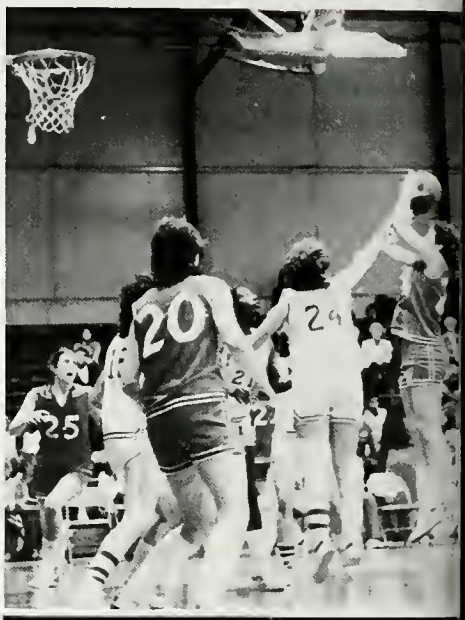
Programs quickly became umbrellas as rain joined the ceremony.

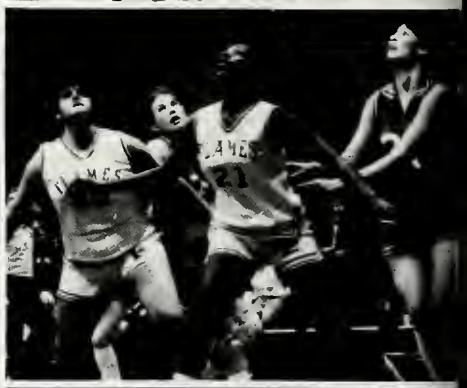
Dr. Zurcher leads the processional.

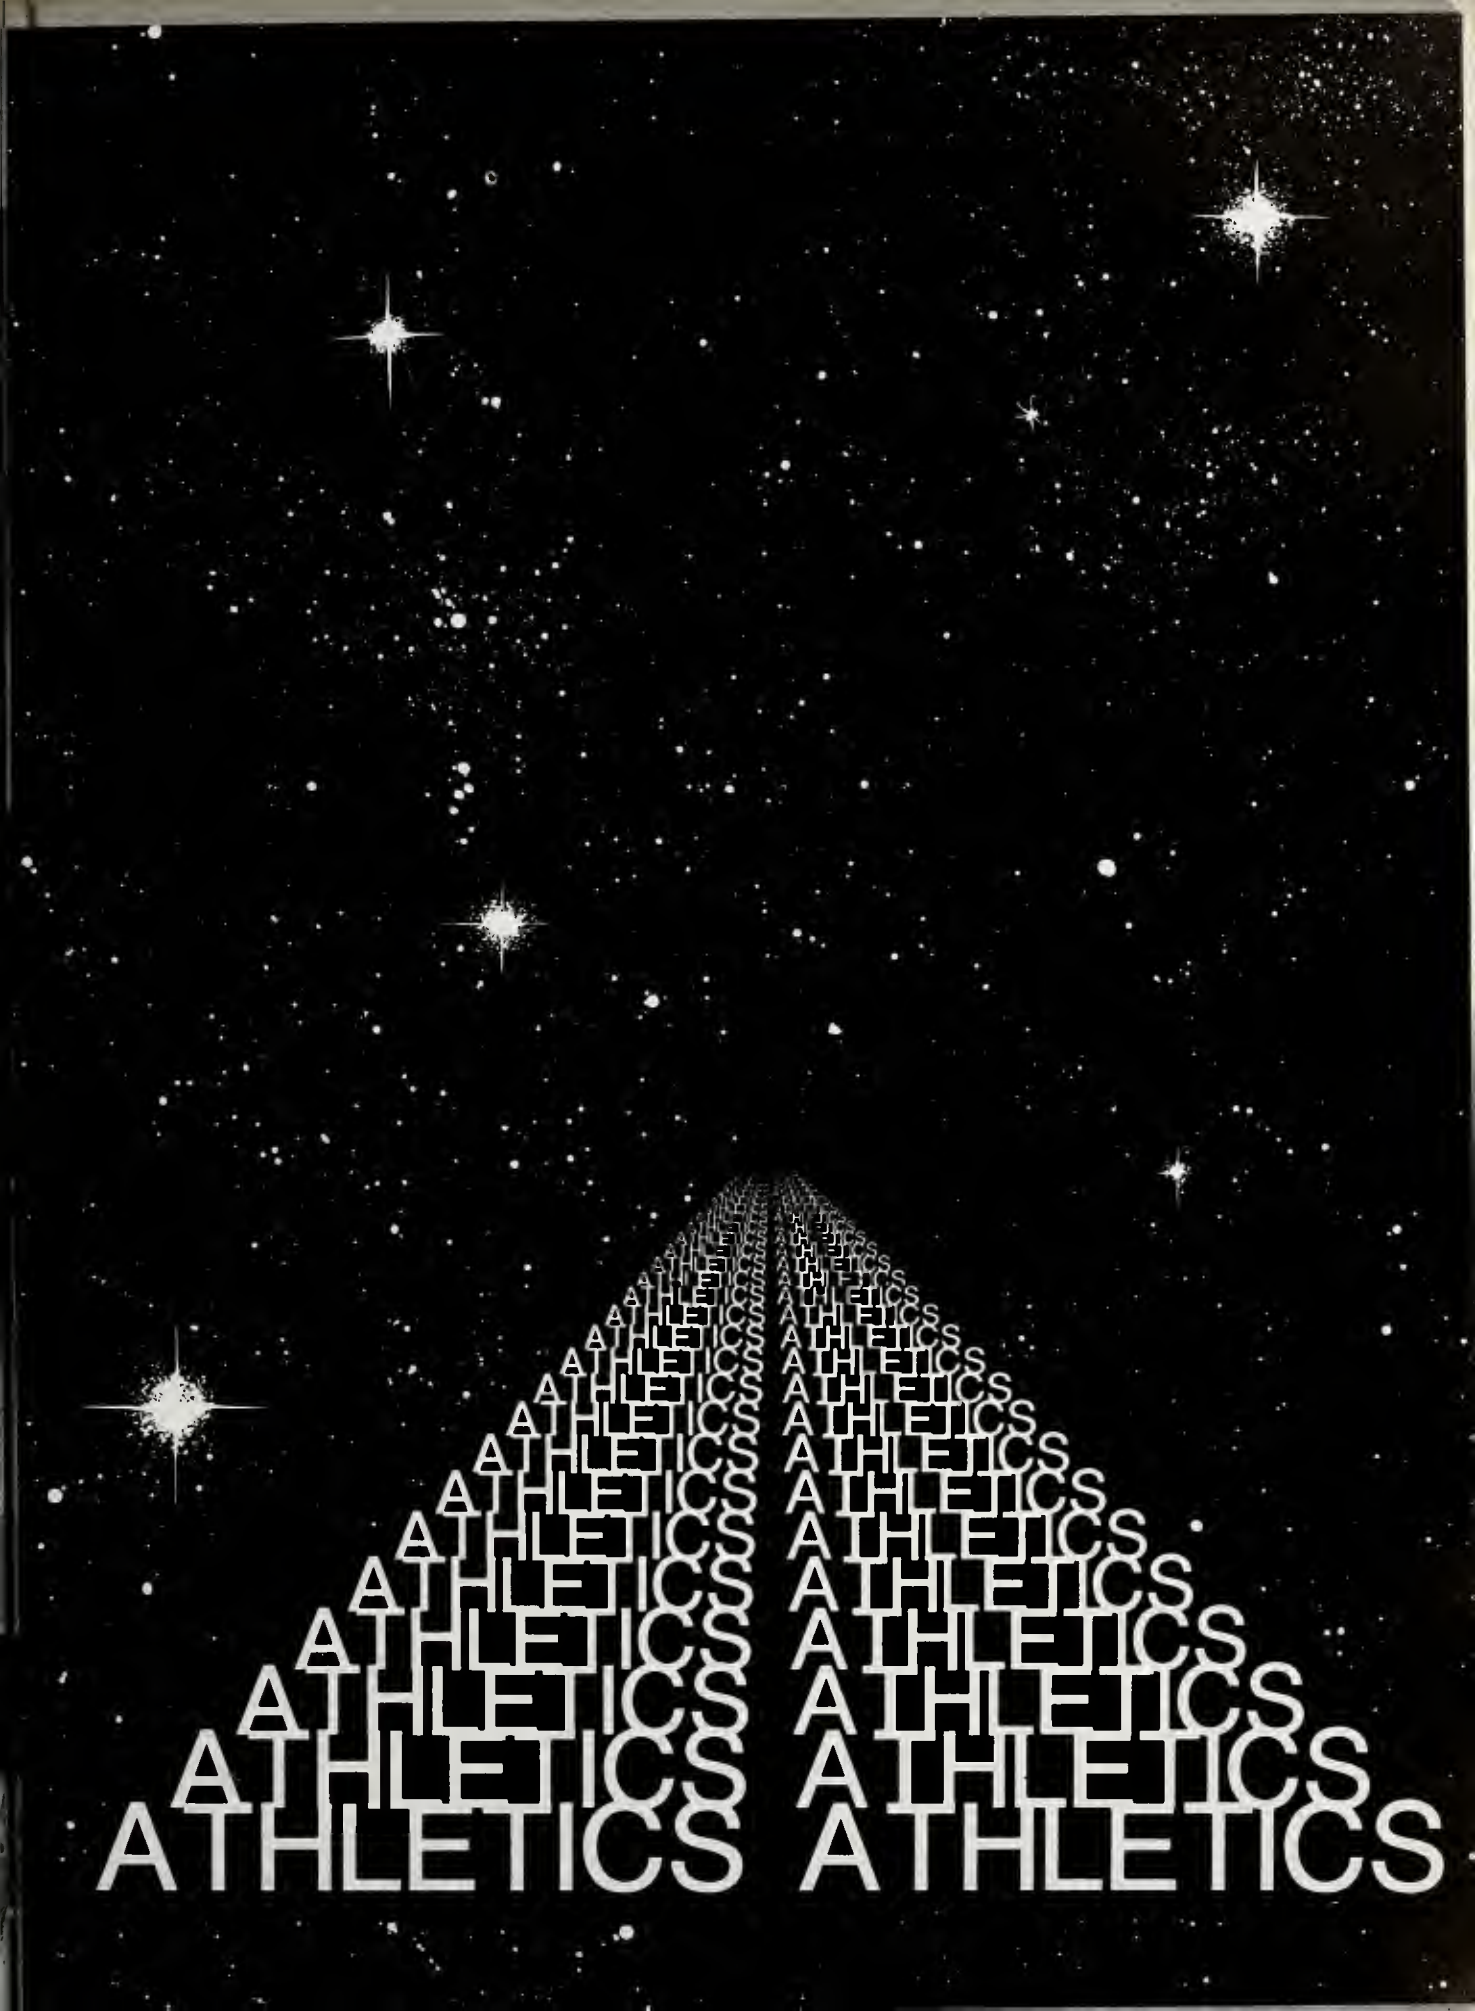
Graduates receive their long-awaited diplomas.

All decked out in the lasted fashions, the senior class gathers for the last time.

National Champs







ATHLETICS ATHLETICS

Men's Soccer

This year's Forester soccer team was beset by a myriad of difficulties which resulted in a 2-11-1 record. The hardworking group was forced to endure nagging injuries to key players which hampered the team's performance. The team's strong-point, however, was its defense that was headed up by senior goalie, Larry Clemens.

The future, though, looks bright for the Forester kickers. This year's team was very inexperienced and young. With many good athletes returning for next fall, the prospects for improvement in the soccer tough Mid-Central Conference look bright.

The team would like to salute their head coach, Doug Gough. Coach Gough is leaving to take a position in Florida and won't be returning to H.C. Best of luck, Coach!

Joe Beah has problems with "defeet".

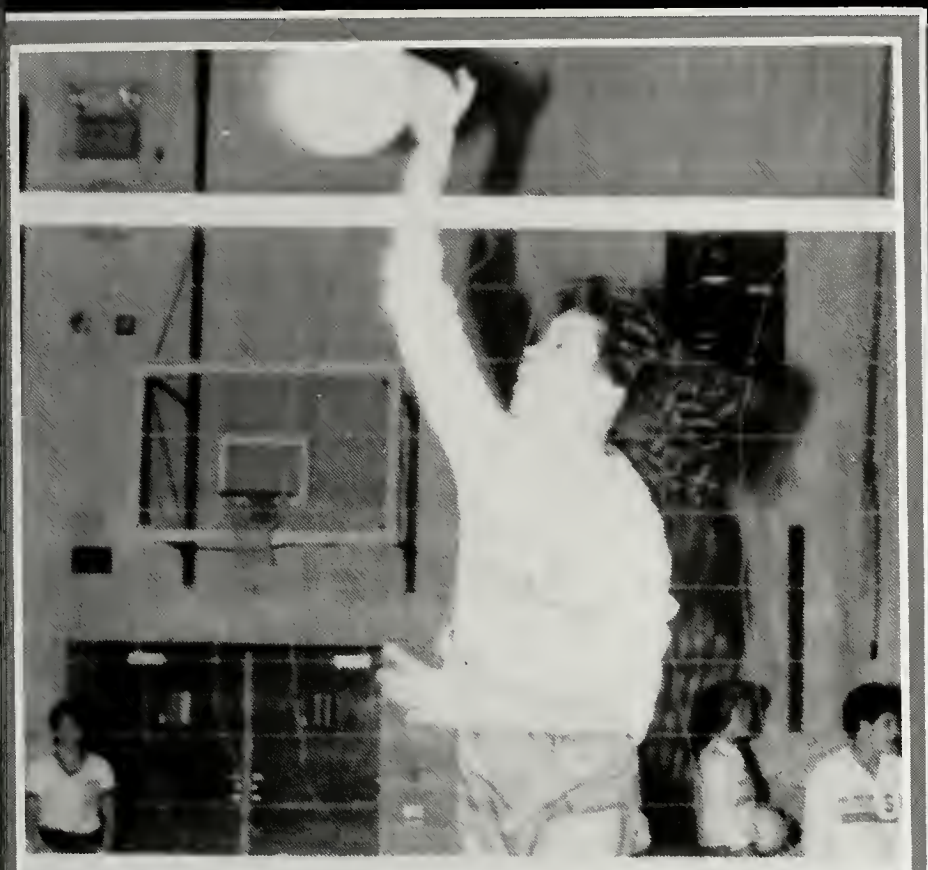
Women's Volleyball

Huntington College's volleyball team faced a tough season as is shown by their 9-16 record. Even so, they were a very talented team with some excellent hitters. With so young a team (only two upperclassmen) they had a few problems playing up to their potential. The lady foresters, however, always showed their hard work and dedication.

Since Mel Cripe is the only graduate the team has, there is a strong returning group for next year. Next year is sure to bring some exciting volleyball and an improved record.



Kelly Gessinger leaps high for a slam.

Net-Men Improve

Forester net-men provided H.C. with some exciting tennis as they improved their win-loss record from that of the last two seasons. The team was 3-5 this year compared to 1-9 in '83 and 0-11 in '82. They also improved their standing in the Mid Central Conference from fifth to fourth. Coach Klopfenstein considered this quite an achievement since the competition was quite strong this year as in shown by the shutout the H.C. team endured.

Coach is confident that with a nucleus of Bruce Imel, Ron Gamble, and Troy Irick returning the '84 season is off to a good start.

Season Record: 2-10

Women's Tennis

The Lady Forester netters began their season with a forfeit victory over Indiana Central due to a scheduling mix-up. The four returning seniors, Gayle Abbott, Camille Kline, Sue Haines, and Vanessa Garlinger, took the first four positions on the team. Candy Keller and Jeananne Calander rounded out the standings at numbers 5 and 6 respectively. Two freshmen volleyball players, Tracy Freed and Donna Hartman, assisted in a few of the matches when schedules didn't conflict.

The ladies only played one tri-match this season at Taylor against Taylor and Franklin. The ladies finished with a 2-10 season, with victories over Indiana Central and St. Francis. Even though the team victories were few, the personal accomplishments for the season were worth taking note of. Despite injuries and disappointments of losing close matches, the ladies still gave 100%. With only the 6 permanent players a close bond was formed and a lot of encouragement was shared.

The state tournament was played at Anderson. Unfortunately Huntington drew tough competitors in the first few rounds. The only seeded player from Huntington was Gayle Abbott, seeded third in the #1 singles bracket. State tournament was a learning experience not only in play but also in viewing play among the top players.

A team is never complete without a coach. Mrs. Zezula provided many things for the team acting as coach, trainer, and mom. Mrs. Zezula will have her work cut out for her next year in filling the top 4 positions due to graduation of the 4 seniors. Mrs. Z has tentatively scheduled an alumni match for next September between the alumni from the past few years and the present team.

Men's Basketball

Basketball is always exciting at H.C., and this year was no exception. The Men's basketball team started the season out with some exciting wins, including a 70-67 victory over Adrian up at the Silverdome. The team ran into difficulties later in the season, however, and won only three games after Christmas.

Coach Randy Unger says the season had three major high points. First, was the win at Taylor which was the first game where the team put everything together and got a 'team win'. Secondly, the games in South Carolina were a very positive experience for the team even though they didn't result in a win. Lastly, the team is very young so there will be a lot of returning experienced players.

We're proud of this team of hard working individuals. Even when things looked down, they went into the game with a fighting attitude.

The Unger Brothers coach the team out of a bind.

Chris Yentes applies some heat.

Women's Basketball

This extraordinary basketball team put Huntington College in the news. They brought home the first national title to HC. One of the most unusual things about this team is it's coach, Keith Freeman. At the beginning of the season, the Herald Press aluded to the fact that a college sophomore couldn't make a good coach. Keith sure proved this 'fact' to be only a false theory and we owe him alot.

The team was just that, a team. They played together, laughed together, and cried together. There couldn't be a better group of girls to represent the Lord and our school. Their record speaks for itself. They certainly didn't get their title by luck, but beat some top-notch teams. Great Job, Girls!!!!!

Record 11-22

The baseball team had an exciting year as for the first time they had some fall games. This made it a year long sport for those involved. Over spring break, they traveled to Florida to play baseball rather than go to the beach. They made an excellent showing for our school as they played some very tough schools. For MCC they finished 7-5 with most of the losses coming late in the season for the conference games. This made for an exciting end to the season as the competition got close.

Tom Johnson was voted MVP. This little second baseman was a very dependable lead-off batter for the team. With a team of mostly seniors and freshmen, recruiting for next year was emphasized through-out the season.

Kneeling: Mike Ankrom, Joel Martin, Cam Parr, Rick Rumler, Mike Banush, Dave James, and Kevin Cook.
Standing: Coach Mike Reese, Phil Stanzick, John Dilley, Dave Neuenschwander, Randy Evans, Dave Burkholder, Rod Price, and Tom Johnson.
Missing: Tim Nussbaum, Greg Cochran, Russ Jones, Mike Jay, Steve Blackwell, Fred Heimach, and Todd Sherman.

Rick Rumler guards the plate.

Women's Softball

The Huntington College women's softball team had an exciting season which opened with the IUPUI Tournament. Here they beat Butler as well as Indiana Central. This was followed by two wins over Notre Dame to get the season off to a good start.

Lori Culler received the Most Valuable Player of the year award. She'll be back next year for another season, so things don't look too bad for the next season. The only graduates the team has are Sabra Newsome, Sue Gnagy, and Janice (Boo) Hoaglin.

Kneeling: Kimbo Armand, Mary Knipp, Jana Harding, Dee Worden, Sally Fox, and Julie Oak. Standing: Bonnie Hough, Lori Sander, Melissa Reed, Sabra Newsome, Lori Culler, Donna Hartman, Sue Gnagy, Janice Hoaglin, and Coach Sue Ross.

Golf

After a slow start, the golf team finished second in the Mid Central Conference. They started out the season by a last place finish in the first meet, but by the fifth meet had finished second. This resulted in a season record of 10-10, a seventh place in the NAIA, and a seventh place in the NCCAA.

Mark Schwob was the Most Valuable Player for the season. Even though Mark's a senior and won't play next year, the team has four returning members to form a strong nucleus.

Golfers include: Bruce Imel, Brian Sill, Mark Johnson, Coach Dick Klopfenstein, Dave James, Mark Schwob, and Vaughn Marty.

Men's Track & Field

Huntington College's Track and Field team did extremely well this year. They recruited quite a few Freshmen and then proceeded to make a good showing for themselves. They had a spring training trip to North Carolina to start the season out and then made a great victory over Concordia and Goshen.

Randy Younce was voted MVP for the season. He'll be back next year as will most of the team. Ron Cherry is the only graduate the team has, so they should have a pretty good start for next year.

Senior Athletes

Like most things, until you've gone out for a sport, you never realize all the time and energy that must go into it if you're to be your best. On the next five pages are pictured those who have given quite a bit of their time to representing our school through athletics. They have been involved in their sports for many years and brought their talents to Huntington College. We appreciate their years of service and their use of God-given talents.

Batgirls and Cheerleaders

Our cheerleaders and batgirls have a hard job. They are supposed to help the team while at the same time help keep the fans excited. The bleacher bums helped the cheerleaders and the Mike Reese fan club helped the batgirls. Dull moments at our sporting events this year were few and far between. Thanks gang, for a job well done.

Fall Senate

The fall Student Senate, under the leadership of Roger Vezeau, started the year out right for us. They introduced some new freshman members and started right out in plans for homecoming. During the semester they held a meeting with the student body to try to change the constitution concerning the number of SCM students on senate. This was interesting for the students to participate in and let their voice be heard. Thanks, senate, for your help and activities which made the semester more fun!

Spring Senate

The spring Student Senate had some adjustments to make under a new president in Mike Newman. He, however, buckled down to the task and showed us that we were right in putting our trust in him. The senate improved communication between students and administration as well as kept the students informed of their activities. The highlight of the spring is probably the very successful walk-a-thon. The entire senate worked hard to provide us with a better campus and we're proud of them.

Hardy Hall Dorm Council

What do the following things have in Common? — a beach party, Sadie Hawkins, a haunted house, two chapels, clowns in the Homecoming parade, and the movie Ice Castles. They were all sponsored by the Hardy Hall Dorm Council. The officers that helped make these events possible are president Kimbo Armand, vice president, Teresa Harter, and treasurer/secretary, Mary Stall. Thanks girls, you added alot to our year.

Row 1: Mary Stall, Kimbo Armand, Lynn Robbins, Teresa Harter. Row 2: Janet Reeve, Melinda Gallaway, Janet Clayborn. Row 3: Becky Stump, Wendy Feusse, Kim Barlow.

Wright Hall Dorm Council

We have this dorm council to thank for perhaps the most exciting thing on campus — KILLBALL. Other events that this group sponsered are late night bowling, campus wide late night Merrilott, and a dorm pizza party. Officers of this group include president Ron Cherry, vice president, Randy Lane, and Treasurer/Secretary, Ken Hippensteel.

Sitting: Dave Marlow, Ron Cherry, Randy Lane. Standing: Brian Shubert, Dan Fisher, Jon Albright, Rodney Price, John Koch, Ken Hippensteel.

Those senior RA's always give uplifting experiences.

R.A.'s

Who is it that helps to maintain at least a symbolence of a 'study atmosphere' on the dorm floors? Of course, it's the RA's. They hold a very important position and their job is not an easy one. They are expected to be disciplinarion, counselor, friend, and parent all at the same time. Beside all this they are the to be our spiritual leaders. Thanks for your job well done, gang.

Choir

The choir is more active than you might realize. For instance, this year they took a tour to Pennsylvania, sponsered a chapel in which they sang, and participated in Huntington North High School's presentation of the Messiah. Area concerts are also a part of their ministry. The officers this year are president Cheryl Faler, vice president, Wendy Smith, secretary/treasurer, Eleanor Betterly, and social chairwoman, Cindy Hoobler.

Michael Jorgensen directs the choir.

Collegium Musicum

From left: Dave Morton, Eleanor Betterly, Cynthia Clore, Michael Jorgensen, Mary Stall, Charlie Barber, Wendy Smith, Brian Shubert, Scott Taylor, Marlene Schleiffer.

Melinda Reiber, Cheryl Faler, Rick Johnson, Ken Hippensteel, Mary Sherlock, Kathy Wust.

New Creation

These two musical groups represent our school in very different ways. The Collegium Musicum is a group that plays music from the Medieval and early Renassaince periods. New Creation, however, is involved with mostly contemporary music. New Creation is our Christian service team and they travel representing the college. During the summer they are traveling all over the country singing at churches and camps.

Drama Groups

Drama on campus is excellent and these two groups provide it. Anyone involved in drama can be a member of Campus Players Alpha Psi, on the other hand, is a little harder to get into. To gain enterance, one must earn points by participating in plays, chairing a committee, or helping out backstage. Fifteen off stage, ten on stage, and 25 extra points are required before induction. For induction the prospect must recite twelve lines of Shakespeare.

Alpha Psi members include: President Kerry Arnold, Vice President Linda Smith, Secretary/Treasurer Shari Sewell, Advisor Dr. Zurcher, Burt McAtee, Eleanor Betterly, Susan Winger, and Jim Overshire.

Campus Players include: Treasurer/Secretary Burt McAtee, Vice President Eleanor Betterl, President Linda Smith, Advisor Dr. Zurcher, Tim Chown, Charlie Barber, Susan Winger, Kerry Arnold, Amy Bensen, Rick Dennie, Shari Sewell, Nathan Stump, Dave Waddell, and Jim Ovenshire. Missing are: Tom Brincefield, Darlene Cox, Dave Marlow, Rod Price, and Wendy Smith.

Student Admissions

This group of students and staff are extremely important in the image of our college to those who visit us. They are the ones who give the tours and answer any questions prospective students and their parents might have. These people also go to college fairs and talk to high school students and try to create some interest in Huntington College. With the extremely active insight days we had this year, it is obvious that the staff did their best to help promote our school.

Alpha Gamma Pi

Alpha Sigma Eta

Alpha Gamma Pi, under the leadership of Cindy Untiedt, is the one and only sorority on campus. This group functions for spiritual reasons as well as service. Thirteen new members were inducted for next year.

Alpha Sigma Eta is a service fraternity. They try to work with the sorority to contribute their time and service to the community. They try to focus all of their activities around Christ. Regretfully, this is the last year for Alpha Sigma Eta at Huntington College.

Row 1: Dennis McCune and Hank Reutz. Row 2: Gary Town, John Kramer, Rick Rumler, Brian Nofzinger, and Dave Marlow.

Pi Beta Lambda

Phi Beta Lambda is a business fraternity. They try to study and learn all they can about the aspects of business. They meet once a month. This year they are marketing a fresbee golf game which they plan to call "Saucer Toss" Officers include president Skip Savage, vice president Jene Jenkins, treasurer Chuck Moore, and secretary Robin Frantz.

Four Neat Guys

This quartet of Kerry Arnold, Dave James, Ron Cherry, and Dave Burkholder call themselves "The Four Neat Guys." They were definitely a favorite on campus this year as they entertained students and faculty. They were seen in chapels, at basketball games, and insight days. Thanks guys for adding music to our lives.

Alpha Chi

To become a part of Alpha Chi you need to be in the top 10% of your class and also be elected by the faculty. Some that have accomplished this are the president, Dave James, vice president, Kirk Nofzinger, secretary Steve Gray, and treasurer, Pam Mize. The main products of this organization are the annual Boare's Head festival and the Quiz Bowl. Two professors sponsor this group and they are Dr. Michelson and Ann McPherren.

These five sophomore girls are the top five percent of their class and very likely to becoming full fledged members of Alpha Chi as juniors next year.

Spectrum

The Spectrum staff this year, under new management, really did an excellent job of upgrading our school newspaper. We are all proud of the work that they did to help the communication on campus improve. Missing from being pictured are: Mindi Gallaway — assistant editor, Burt McAtee — business manager, Jim Shaffer — music editor, Suellen Loher — photographer, Rodney Fox — Advertising, and typists — Sharon Batten and Teresa Schnarre.

Jeananne Celander — editor

Brenda Fox — layout design

Dave James — Off the Cuff

Mnemosyne

The yearbook staff this year was blessed with many talented members. It was certainly a job that many contributed to and hopefully this shows as you look at the book. Not all of the members are pictured, because they're camera shy. Recognition goes to Ron Cherry who worked on the sports and Brenda Wireman who was our Business Manager and sold the adds. Kim Barlow, assistant editor, was an extremely valuable member with her expert advise in many areas and willingness to work. Diana Taylor also helped with the student life section. Carl Mongold helped out with photography as did Jacque Quigley and Sue Overshire. The book, however, would never have been completed without the valuable help of Roxie Stahl and Dave Hedrick in PR. We hope our efforts have produced a book which will bring back memories for you each time you look at it.

We are proud of our people and proud to be a part of HUNTINGTON

Huntington is world-renowned for being the home of Our Sunday Visitor, the world's largest Catholic publishing and printing company. Founded in 1912, the company moved to its modern plant in 1961.

OSV publishes the most widely-circulated Catholic weekly in the country, Our Sunday Visitor, and six other periodicals. It also publishes Catholic paperback books, a religious textbook series, and audio-visual material for use in classrooms.

IF ANY MAN BE IN CHRIST, HE IS A NEW
CREATRUE, OLD THINGS
ARE PASSED AWAY;
BEHOLD, ALL THINGS ARE BECOME NEW.
